Hello,

We are Danny and Ingrid. We want to tell you how much we appreciate you taking time to look at our profile and being open to adoption. We hope to give you a better view into our life together, and how your child may fit into it. We love God, our families, and each other, and are excited to share that love with a child. Although we have struggled for several years with infertility, long before that God had placed adoption on both of our hearts. Our first discussion about it started back when we were dating long distance. We have been married now for 7 years and are grateful to be on this journey!
Life with Danny and Ingrid

Favorite Things

(Upper right) Our first date was hiking and hot cocoa.

(Middle left) Canoeing with Ingrid's twin sister near her family cabin in Minoqua. We love being on the water: floating, boating, beaching, or swimming.

(Lower left) Our annual attendance at Country Jam with friends. We enjoy music festivals and music in the park downtown by the river in the summertime.
Shared Interests

(Upper Left) Our condo that we own. The neighborhood has walking paths we enjoy, and a shared playground for our future little one. We enjoy hosting people in our home.

(Middle Left) On one of our many family hikes out in Colorado. We love being in nature: hiking, biking, camping, etc. We are adventurous and love to travel. Some of the places we have been to are Alaska, Africa, China, Dominican Republic, Mexico, and Hawaii. We aim to visit all the national parks in the United States.

(Bottom Left) Cooking authentic Chinese food with international students. In recent years we have started hosting international students that come from other countries to the University in our city. We enjoy learning about their culture and giving them a support system when they are miles away from their homes and families.

(Bottom Middle) We like downhill skiing at Big Sky, Montana with Ingrid’s Dad and Sister.

(Bottom Right) We buy and remodel homes and rental properties together. This is a family business with Danny’s parents.
Meet my husband Danny

I love him for his storytelling that captivates a room and ends in laughter. His laugh is contagious. I admire Danny for the humble servant he is. He works as a firefighter and paramedic for our city, and is always willing to help friends when they are in need. He has a strong faith that has provided wisdom when making life decisions for our family. He is adventurous and has a great work ethic. He makes life more exciting, and I am so blessed to experience it with him.

Dreamer, Extrovert, Positive

Danny enjoys deer hunting, elk hunting out west, and running half marathons where he competes against his friends. He bonds with his brothers and dad watching sports. Danny is a breakfast guy and makes some mean french toast! He connects well with people from all walks of life and has maintained friendships from childhood. He is a driven person who took on the challenge of managing our rental property business. Danny will make an amazing dad as he so naturally interacts with our nieces and nephews and all of our friend’s children. He is the guy you will find racing kids in the yard or playing games with them because he has a pure love for children!
Meet my wife Ingrid

She is sweet, adventurous, and courageous all at the same time. She has a HUGE heart and loves people with all of it. She is wise, and has a deep faith in God, but loves to laugh and be silly also. She likes to travel to warm places, cook healthy food, be active and take good care of herself. She is a great downhill skier, likes rock climbing, and has done roller blade marathons. She is adventurous, and has lived in 4 different states: Wisconsin, Iowa, Florida, and Arizona.

Thoughtful, Genuine, Fun

She is a hard worker, and has earned two different college degrees in Education and Occupational Therapy. She is a very dependable and reliable person who you can count on through the ups and downs of life. She will be a great mom because of how loving and nurturing she is. Being a great role model will be easy for her because it's not something she will have to make up or fake. She is naturally a very good and well rounded person. I love her, and so will any child that we are lucky enough to have in our life!
Family and Friends

Danny's Family

Family and friends are very important to us. We have large family get togethers for holidays with lots of food and laughter. We also like to do summer trips with them out west to hike, or rent a cabin on a lake in Wisconsin to go swimming, fishing, and kayaking. Danny's parents are still married, and he has 3 brothers. We have 7 nieces and nephews who are so fun to play with, and they would love another little cousin to love on.
Ingrid's Family

Ingrid’s mom and dad are divorced, and we have a great relationship with both of them and their respective spouses. She has a twin sister and 4 stepsisters that we enjoy spending time with. We also have amazing friends, and some of our good friends have also adopted. All of them are excited about our adoption journey, and any child who joined our family would instantly have a huge support system of people who love and care about him or her.
This is our Promise

Thank you for learning about us and our hearts for adoption. We have prayed to be parents for several years and look forward to meeting the child God has planned for us!

We will unconditionally love and support this child. We will encourage and equip this child to try new things and to reach his or her full potential. Ingrid plans to be a stay-at-home mom so she can be dedicated to raising this child by providing safety, instilling good values, and being a whole lot of fun!

Lastly, we want you to know that if you want a relationship with the child after he or she is born we are open to that as well.

Sincerely,
Danny and Ingrid
