Dear Birth Mother

We are very appreciative that you took the time to view our profile. We can only imagine what a difficult and emotional journey this has been for you. We are honored you are considering us for the privilege and responsibility of parenting your child. Please know we will provide your child with unconditional love and compassion, as well as raise them in a safe and nurturing environment. We are eager to open our hearts, and our home to another child and give them the best possible life.
About Us

We met while working together in college, and bonded over a love of art, animals, and music. We were married in 2011 and late this summer bought our first house in a great neighborhood just a few blocks from an excellent elementary school and many parks. We are very fortunate to have many of our family members nearby, and enjoy celebrating holidays and special occasions with both sides. Emily has one sister, a children’s librarian, and Steve has one married brother, who has a daughter just a year older than Cosette. We are extreme dog lovers, and enjoy taking family walks with Cosette, Dexter and Morsel and piling on the couch together in the evening to watch TV. We love our family and home, and can’t wait to welcome another child!
About Emily

Emily is a loving, sensitive, caring wife and mother, who is both creative and active. Emily loves to play with Cosette and always keeps an eye out for her when it comes to fun toys and clothes. Emily loves to bake and keeps Cosette and I stocked up on treats.

As a journalist for the La Crosse Tribune, Emily enjoys finding stories that are fun, a little bit strange, or simply involving animals. Emily’s soft spot has always been dogs. Emily has continued to show her love for all things animal, having volunteered at humane societies (weekly) no joke, for most of her life. Emily is committed, intelligent, and has shown me her love is endless. Cosette, our dogs (Dexter and Morsel) and I are very fortunate. Emily is a great mom, and will surely be one for your child.
About Steve

Steve is goofy, friendly and seems to be get along with everyone. Steve co-owns and operates Elevate Media Group, a multimedia company, and impresses both me and his clients with his photography, videography and web designing talents. Steve loves to be silly with Cosette, playing hide and seek, making funny voices and chasing her around. Steve is an animal lover and dotes on our dogs. He does amazing photoshopped backgrounds and effects for our holiday cards every year, such as turning Cosette into Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz and the dogs into flying monkeys! Steve is a loving and dedicated dad to Cosette and will be a wonderful father to your child.
About Cosette

Cosette (her nickname is Cozy) is an energetic, friendly and affectionate little girl who always seems to be laughing and running around. She is very active and loves throwing balls, dancing, doing somersaults and playing with her baby dolls and stuffed animals. Cosette is very friendly and loving, always giving hugs, high fives and kisses. She loves dogs, especially Morsel, who she calls MoMo. Cosette loves visiting with Emily’s parents, Tom and Mary Ellen, and Steve’s parents, Karen and Steve Sr. Grandpa Tom watches her four days a week while Steve and Emily are at work, and a typical day for them involves playing in the park, a trip to the Children’s Museum and reading lots of books. Cosette will make an amazing sister and playmate for your child!
